FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (March 19, 2024) - The South Florida Pride Concert Band announced a special concert May the 4th Be with You, featuring the music of John Williams and hosted by Pandora Boxx of RuPaul’s Drag Race All Stars, scheduled for Saturday, May 4, at 7 p.m. at the Amaturo Theater at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts.

The audience is in for treat with countless fan favorites composed by Williams, an Oscar- and Grammy Award–winning composer and conductor, known for creating some of the most recognizable movie scores in history, including for Jaws, E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial, Jurassic Park, Superman and of course the Star Wars franchise.

Boxx will host the lively concert with her incomparable flair and humor as the South Florida Pride Concert Band performs several electrifying songs from Star Wars and other notable soundtracks composed by Williams. Video footage will accompany much of the music and as always, there will be some fun surprises.

“We’ve been looking forward to this concert for a long time and are incredibly honored Pandora Boxx is flying into town as our special guest host,” said Dr. Adam DeRosa, president of South Florida Pride Bands. “With our final concert of the season falling on May 4, it’s only fitting that we pay tribute to the Star Wars franchise and feature the extraordinary works by Williams, one of the most prolific composers of our time.”
